About Heritage Theological Seminary

Heritage exists to equip people for theologically grounded leadership and ministry to serve the mission of God in the world. As a Christian institution, it is a place where the Bible is central in the classroom and in life. Faculty not only educate students, but serve as godly role models and mentors. It's a place that offers students opportunity to explore, ask questions, and grow in all dimensions of life.

A unique, intensive course designed to explore key themes, topics and issues that have significant influence on ministry orientations to, for, and with women, particularly within the local evangelical church setting.

Topics Include:

- Women in the Biblical Record
Various Interpretive Perspectives from the Old and New Testaments
- Canadian Culture, Immigration and Multiculturalism
New Challenges and Opportunities as the World's Women come to Canada
- Feminist Theology
Exploring the continuum, contributions, concerns and outcomes
- Role of Women
Exploring the various positions and their implications for women and the church
- Leadership and Pastoral Ministry
Responding pastorally to women of all ages

An interactive study and dialogue delivered through five, three-hour segments covering biblical, cultural, theological, and ecclesiastical perspectives and applications.
